Spa tradition at Danubius

We have over 40 hotels in 5 countries, and you will find that each of our locations has its own individual atmosphere, scenery and traditions. What they all have in common, however, is belief in the healing power of the earth's natural resources and a way of life that is built around 'spa'.

Whether you are seeking the trusted results of our rehabilitation therapies, wish to relax and enjoy the soothing effects of nature's wonders or simply want to escape to a pretty and exotic location, then we are waiting for you - with a warm welcome.

In many of our locations you will see this spa tradition reflected in the beautiful architecture of our properties. In the past these were actually therapy centres for the treatment of medical conditions.

With the ever-changing culture of spa, we have also moved with the times. In addition to effective therapies for the treatment of medical conditions, we also offer a wide range of pampering and relaxation services.

Whether you are visiting for medical reasons or to relax and destress, you will instantly sense the tradition and confidence behind our procedures and the execution of our treatments - treatments that have been tried and tested over centuries.
